

Spirit of the Mountains Day Camp Registration

Spirit of the Mountains Day Camp is scheduled for the last two weeks of July 2017 (July 17-21 and July 24-28) and will be led by our camp director, Kalen Kleyman. Although the schedule and activities change each year, campers often enjoy exploring outdoors, swimming, singing, playing games such as 4-square, an overnight experience (older kids), and Jewish inspired cooking and art projects. Campers will extend their connection of the year long Bet Sefer theme of Tikkun Olam (repairing the world) and engage in service learning. Camp is held Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Old Wilson School Community Center. We welcome campers entering Kindergarten through 6th grade. Open to any child, non-Jewish campers welcome.

Two week registration is highly encouraged as programming has been created with this continuous progression in mind. Registrations will be processed in the order they are received until camp is full and must be accompanied by full payment. Invoices will be emailed using SquareUp. Cash or personal checks also accepted. Payments will be processed after early registration deadline of May 1, 2017 and confirmations will be sent via email. Later this spring, an acceptance packet will be sent with additional paperwork to complete and return.
